

Furniture made of wood - the attribute of luxury and successful lifestyle

Products made of wood has always been considered a sign of wealth and good taste. These pieces of furniture are characterized by naturally hue, they are completely ecologically clean and have amazing strength

The main difference and advantage of solid wood furniture is its special power, which it fills the living space, bringing the house warm and cozy

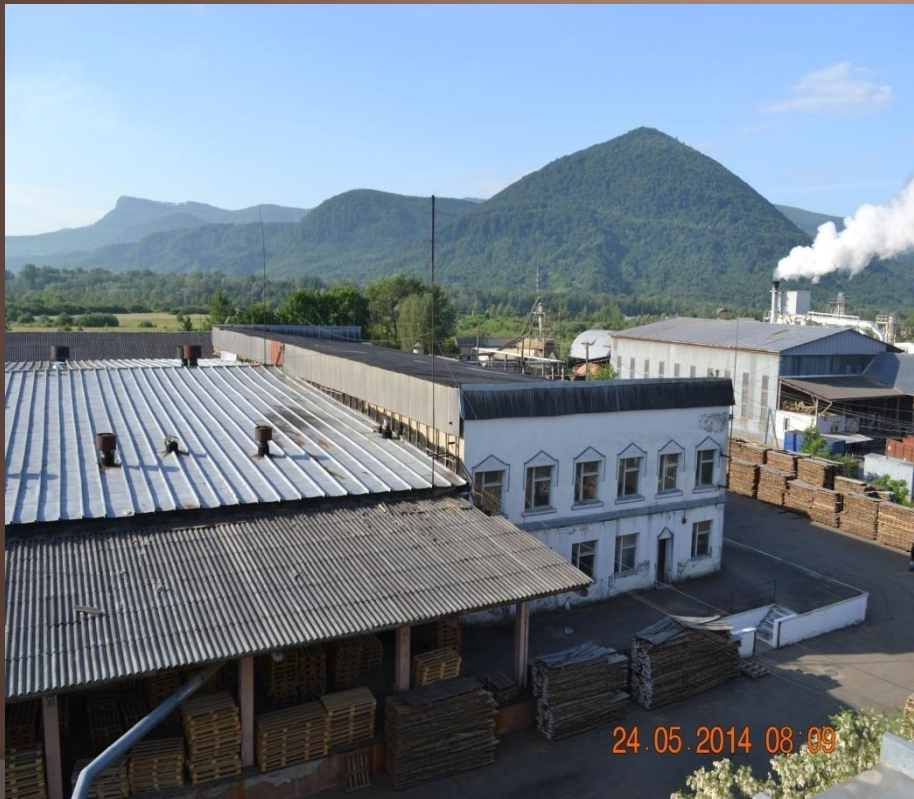

*Lamella
Manufacture of wood furniture*

We render the warmth of wood

Solid wood furniture creates an atmosphere of respectability and stability, it literally makes their owners to live by the rules of the same independent and representative of life.

Since 2010, the main activity of the company is the manufacture of furniture. Production equipped with modern equipment of famous European manufacturers, which allows to achieve not only high quality but also to respond quickly to changing market demand.

The workshop is designed based on modern technologies and requirements, and is equipped with the most advanced equipment

Due to the vast experience gained during the processing of wood and advanced technology, it allows us to make furniture of "luxury" class of valuable species.

Currently the company specializes in making furniture and furniture pieces for the production of which uses purchase timber and draft furniture work pieces.

The company produces such kind of furniture as tables, coffee tables, benches, beds, stools, which are exported to Europe

